Good Hearing

Mayor Hopeful Of Progress on House Problem

By B. T. RICHARDSON

Edmonton public opinion is divided

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Mayor John

W. Fry told The Bulletin today that he and City Commissioner

John Hodgson had received very sympathetic reaction to the proposals to deal with the Edmonton housing problem.

"It has been very encouraging," said Mayor Fry, "and I think we are going to get somewhere."

The Edmonton delegation interviewed Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of munitions and supply, yesterday.

They have also conferred with

Hon. J. A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce. "Mr. Mac-Kinnon has been a great help to us," said Mr. Fry. "The delegation authorizes this company to assist the city in the middle of next year.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—(CP)—Existence of an acute housing shortage in Edmonton today was drawn to the attention of some officials

Minister Howe yesterday by

Mayor J. W. Fry and City Commissioner John Hodgson.

They called on Mr. Howe, accompanied by Trade Minister Mac-

Kinnon, to discuss the housing problem and submitted a memorandum regarding it.

"If necessary, that the scope of the powers of Wartime Housing

Act, be extended to enable and to authorize this company to assist the city to erect houses as soon as possible."

Signs Multiply

Govt. Retreat

On Wage, Price

Ceiling Indicated

By J. H. GRAY

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Signs are multiplying here that the government is preparing to retreat to new lines on its wage and price ceiling policy which has been in effect since October 1941.

The first sign in the wind was the decision last December to ban a selected list of foods to reduce the control of food prices and production will be vetoed in the ministry of agriculture.

Behind the new policy is the fact that wage-price ceiling is interfering with war production. In order to get production a new incentive is required and that incentive will be cash to the producers.

When the war industries were expanding, workers who were dissatisfied with their wages could go to work at higher wages in the war plants. This hundreds of lower paid workers left the steel industry and the forests for better paid work in manufacturing. Those who left the farms for the same reasons.

As the war industries reached peak employment it no longer was possible for the government to draw workers from the farms.

At the low end of the scale farmers could not produce because of the shortage of labor.

One station now being used by the Atlantic Highway is the former

Tire Service, premises at 111

avenue and 401 street.

The premises are owned by the American Oil Co.

The other station is the former occupied by Love's Auto Service at 8629 111 avenue, just east of the British America station.

Both places will be used now exclusively for servicing trucks of the American bridge company.

MONTREAL, Feb. 5.—(CP)—

Judge F. T. Enright yesterday sentenced Hugh T. Enright, 26, to two years in the penitentiary when he pleaded guilty to having violated national war regulations by refusing to report for training after being drafted physically fit for military service.

Silverio, who police said was a native of Germany, became a naturalized citizen in 1928.

Silverio said he would prefer to be treated as an alien and have his naturalization papers cancelled, rather than do a sentence in the penitentiary for an act of civil disobedience.

Judge Enright said the case was the first in which a plea of justice at Ottawa with the recommendation that Silverio's

Whole Nation Said Behind Health Plan

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—(CP)—Rev. Daniel McIvor (Lb. Part West) in the House of Commons last night expressed satisfaction in the promise contained in the throne speech that there would be a national health insurance scheme.

The whole country will be behind it, he said, continuing debate on the address in reply to the throne speech, and he quoted from a resolution supporting health insurance adopted at a recent special meeting of the Canadian Medical Association Council.

Mr. McIvor said the present government had done more for labor than any former government and he proposed to support Labor Minister Mitchell. "The prime minister did not make much of a mistake when he picked Mr. Mitchell," he said.

ADVICE TO MITCHELL
His advice to Mr. Mitchell was to "let the other fellow do the worrying—you stick to your job." He prophesied that those now opposing the Labor Minister would be on Mr. Mitchell's side.

Mr. McIvor said chief objection to Mr. Mitchell came from C. H. Millard, national chairman of the C.I.O. and he added the comment that Mr. Millard was candidate of the C.C.F. party for the Ontario provincial riding of York West.

He read a detailed biographical sketch of Mr. Mitchell and asked "who else, in heaven's name has a better background to lead labor in this house and in the government?"

C. K. Fraser (Prog. Con. Peterborough West) protested that members of the house and the press were not allowed to criticize the government's war effort because they would be told they were hampering efforts for victory.

To Be Sentenced
WINNIPEG, Feb. 5.—(CP)—John Baruk of McGregor, Man., pleaded guilty in assize court here yesterday in a charge of manslaughter and will be sentenced today. The charge followed the death of Martha J. Hamilton here last Oct. 27 in a traffic accident.

Threatened Attack On United States Claimed Warded Off

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—(AP)—A threatened attack on the United States last year was warded off and the enemy defeated over the ocean with only 30 minutes advance notice of the invasion. Col. Earl S. Gorrell, president of the Air Transport Association of America, told the House of Representatives Interstate Committee yesterday.

With only 30 minutes notice of the threatened attack a sufficient number of planes were sent out to sea to lick the enemy before they could reach our shores," Gorrell said.

Gorrell, chief of staff of the A.T.A. during the last war, refused to elaborate on his statement. Apparently, however, he referred to the battle of Midway. Army officials said they knew of no such battle off the continental United States.

Axis Still Has Most Miles to Defend

Mediterranean Coast Vulnerable to Bombs, Invasion

Russian armored cars advancing along a snow-covered road on the lower Don front under fire of German mine-throwers narrowly escape destruction as one of the projectiles explodes nearby. Advances in this area have brought Soviet forces close to Rostov.

The Axis still has the most miles of Mediterranean coastline to defend following Allied conquest of nearly all North Africa. Map shows how concentrated Axis-controlled coasts in southern Europe are vulnerable to bombing raids or invasion from the long African shore.

The Grablins

by J. M. LA. 6009702

Hark to the tale of a creature,
More fearsome than any you've known,
Which has caused so much devastation,
It makes even the strongest men groan.

Now these creatures are kin to the Gremlins,
Those naughty wee stratosphere sties,
But Gremlins make trouble for others,
And these make a lot for themselves.

Have any of you seen a Grablin?
Remember, they're darned hard to spot,
For they look quite a lot like a hamster,
And would fool anyone, like as not.

If you were out hunting for Grablins,
Do you think you would know where to seek?
That's right, just look at the pantries,
And in cellars a good place to peek.

A gain, if we went down some cellar,
And found bags of sugar in stacks,
That is sure to belong to a Grablin,
He'll get his, no matter who lacks.

But before you condemn all these creatures,
Take a look at your own cupboard shelf,
If you have a pound too much butter,
By heck, you're a Grablin, yourself!

Lives Simply

Ingrid Bergman — the famous Swedish actress who is starred with Humphrey Bogart and Paul Henreid in Warners' "Casablanca" — walks more miles a day than the postman on your route. She does not smoke nor drink but is so tolerant as a human being can be. She lives in a simple two-room apartment in Hollywood. Ice cream is her favorite food. She goes to bed early, sleeps with all the windows wide open and wears nightgowns of Irish linen with a minimum of ribbons and lace. She wears no makeup except for a touch of rouge across her lips. She really "lives" in Rochester, New York, where her husband, Dr. Peter Landstrom is a staff surgeon at one of the largest hospitals. Their one child, Pia, is three years old.

Offers to Call Off Engagement

By ROBERT DOWSON

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Italy is showing new signs of weakening under the strain of war and Benito Mussolini is trying to reach a secret peace agreement with Vichy France in an attempt to present to his discouraged people some profits to set off against the loss of the entire Italian empire, dispatches from Stockholm report today.

Stockholm advices quoted reliable diplomatic sources as saying that an Italian delegation headed by a high army officer had left for Paris with proposals designed to be the basis for a peace agreement with Pierre Laval of Vichy.

the Nile area in France and be content with minor 'frontier corrections' the advices reported. It proposes instead of its specific claims for Corsica and Tunisia a total French empire in North Africa, both areas, and it further suggests joint French-German-Italian administration of the former Italian colonies of all three countries.

Field Marshal Sir John Dill, commanding British United Press war correspondent at Allied headquarters in North Africa, reported that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, leading the German forces in North Africa, had gone to special pains to move the Italians ahead of the Germans for fear of causing a political breach between Hitler and Mussolini.

Field Marshal Sir Claude Auchinleck, T. Gorrell, British United Press war correspondent with the British Eighth Army, talked, were bitterly angry, charging Rommel had sacrificed the east of Tripoli to save his own men.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Lana Turner went from a sickbed into court yesterday and obtained an annulment of her marriage to Stephen Crane, together with custody of her unborn child.

The actress, recovering from a cold, spoke in a hoarse whisper as she told Superior Judge Roy V. Rhodes that after she married Crane last July 17 she learned his divorce from a previous wife had not been final.

Crane's divorce now is final. Asked if she intends to remarry him, the blond actress said:

"I have nothing to say on that."

House Is Urged
To Admit Press

For Daily Prayer

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—(CP)—Rev. Daniel McIvor (Lib., Fort William) urged in the house of commons last night that when prayers are being read in the chamber at the start of each day's sitting the galleries should be opened, at least to the press.

House of commons gallery doors are kept locked until after the speaker of the house has read the daily prayer.)

"When you lead us in prayer, Mr. Speaker and ask for victory, I think the press ought to hear it," said Mr. McIvor.

"There are some in the press gallery I consider to be fine Christian characters."

Officers gaped in astonishment when a French lieutenant brought the weary and footsore men into headquarters and announced:

The men are Lieut. Willis Sadler, 22, and Sgt. John Cooper, 20, both from Britain; and Sgt. A. F. Taxis, a Frenchman who quit a job in the French legation in Cairo to join Gen. Charles de Gaulle's Fighting French.

MAKE BOLD RAIDS

They were members of a long-range desert patrol which had been travelling in scout cars, boldly raiding deep in Axis territory for more than two months.

They brought their activity to a climax by penetrating 10 miles north of Gabes, more than 150 miles ahead of the rear elements of Field Marshal Rommel's retreating army, before they were ambushed by a German patrol.

They abandoned their cars to flee afoot, evaded the enemy, escaped a band of hostile Arabs who attempted to beat and rob them and then walked four days and nights to reach friendly

With other members of the desert patrol, all former parachute troops, they set out in 12 cars to disrupt Axis communications and instill constant fear in the Germans and Italians by daring raids from the desert.

SHOOT UP 38 TRUCKS

They told how once they drove boldly onto a Tripolitanian coastal highway right into the middle of an Axis motor convoy, shot up 38 trucks with their machine-guns and then faded back into the desert.

A routine daily task was a quick swoop in from the desert to blast out a dozen or more telephone or telegraph poles on which Rommel's army depended for communications, to drag away a mile or so of wire and then to vanish before Axis patrols reached them.
